

Donald Marquez

Donald Marquez is a semi-retired university professor. He remains an active pilot and flight instructor and is a Federal Aviation Administration Designated Pilot Examiner. His most current Pilot Examiner Designation was renewed in September, 2008. He holds an Airline Transport Pilot Certificate and Flight Instructor Certificate.

Experience

1969-2000 Vincennes University, Vincennes, Indiana
1969-1971 Flight Instructor
1972-1994 Department Chairman, Aviation Flight Technology
1994-1995 Department Chairman, Aviation Technology
1996-1998 Associate Dean, Technology Division
1998-2000 Interim Dean, Aviation Technology

1968 National Aviation Academy, St Petersburg, Florida

1963-1967 United States Air Force

Organizations

AOPA
Aviation Association of Indiana

Education

1959-1963 Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio BA Degree
1970-1972 Indiana State University, Terre Haute, Indiana

Personal Qualifications

Airline Transport Pilot Certificate
Flight Instructor Certificate
Designated Pilot Examiner
2nd Class Flight Physical
Over 12,000 accident/incident free flight hours
More than 3,000 FAA practical tests administered
Former FAA FAR 135 Pilot and Director of Operations